

Leslie M. Martin

Leslie M. Martin, 58, Groton died Friday, March 17, 2000 at her home in Groton. The funeral was held Monday at Emmanuel Lutheran Church, Groton. the Rev. Stephen D. Swenson officiated. Burial was at the Huffton Cemetery under the direction of Paetznick-Garness Funeral Chapel, Groton.

Leslie was born on June 2, 1941, to Leslie and Dorothy (Cain) Honey in Aberdeen. She was raised and educated in the Claremont area. She graduated from Claremont High School in 1959. She married Bartell Martin on October 3, 1959 in Groton. They farmed in the Groton area for a number of years. She moved to Groton in 1997. She worked for Beverly Health Care Home in Groton for a number of years up to the time of her death.

She was a member of the Emmanuel Lutheran Church, she served on the Board of Directors for the South Dakota Society for Health Care for Environmental Services, was involved with the 4-H program and the Visually Handicapped Children, as well as the Foster Care Program. She loved to sew, follow her grandchildren in their soccer events and was a race fan. Leslie provided care for many young children.

She is survived by three daughters, Melodee Pullan, Fargo, Ann (Sheldon) Sheridan, Groton, and Susan (Anthony) Maestas, Cheyenne, Wyo.; three brothers, Robert Honey, Beaumont, Texas, Kenneth Rogers, Phoenix, and Gerald Honey, Duluth; two sisters, Jacque (Wayne) Quiggle Jr., Groton, and Donna (Gary) Armstrong, Milbank; and five grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents and grandparents.

Casket bearers were Dale Wolter, Freddie Pullan, Scott Eisenbeisz, John Martin, Lance Larson and Gary Armstrong.

Honorary casket bearers were Karen Wolter, Marilyn Thorson, Donna Armstrong, Jacque Quiggle and all co-workers and friends at Beverly Healthcare.
